CURRENT EVENTS & AUTOGRAPH PAGES

Current Events are available as full-page backgrounds or as single-story accent pieces in your Pictavo art library. Use as many or as few stories as you'd like, depending on what's of interest for your school.

To use full page Current Events, just drag and drop pre-designed layouts onto any page of your book.

Remember, books are priced based on total page count. Updated Current Events will be available in February each year.

Single-story Current Events are also available. Search 'Current Events' in the Art menu, select 'Accents' to see stories available.

PERSONAL MESSAGES ARE ALWAYS AN IMPORTANT PART OF THE YEARBOOK!

These pre-printed autograph pages are produced on uncoated paper to be marker, pen and pencil friendly.

LADDER - Pictavo's built-in organizing tool where you can track users, tasks, assignments and content

Pictavo's contextual menus appear only when an element is selected; only tools that apply to the selection are available.

DASHBOARD

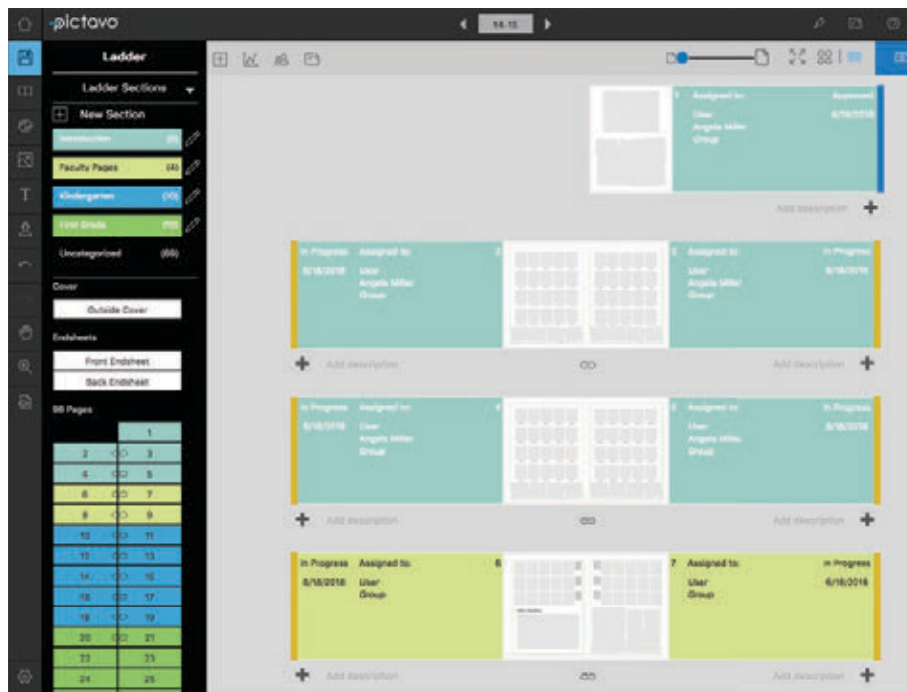

The Dashboard is a snapshot of your project and a gateway to helpful project management tools. This includes a calendar where you can create and assign events or tasks to yourself and others. As Project Administrator (Admin), you have access to privileges like setting up users and deciding settings that other users do not.

PLANNING IS EVERYTHING

USING A LADDER

Your yearbook ladder is basically a blueprint for your project. Creating an outline of page content, assignments and deadlines will lay a strong foundation for an organized yearbook.

Your yearbook kit contains two large wall ladders. Keep these on the wall in the yearbook classroom for everyone to see.

The most detailed and accessible ladder is in Pictavo. Here you can color-code sections, add page descriptions, see users assigned to specific pages, as well as track who, when and how long they worked in the book.

Your yearbook provider will provide a "due date" for you to submit your yearbook to them based on your desired delivery date and book specifications. This scheduling provides a "due date". From this date, work backwards to create milestones for your staff to meet while designing and carefully proofing the entire book.

Create a 'rough draft' of your page flow and content based on last year's page count or discussions your staff has already had regarding coverage plans. Base initial ideas on what you already know: enrollment, club participation, number of athletic teams and planned school events for the year.

Make sure everyone is aware of your plan as outlined on the ladder and know what their role is in meeting the milestones needed to achieve it. Daily or weekly meetings help facilitate communication and coordination.

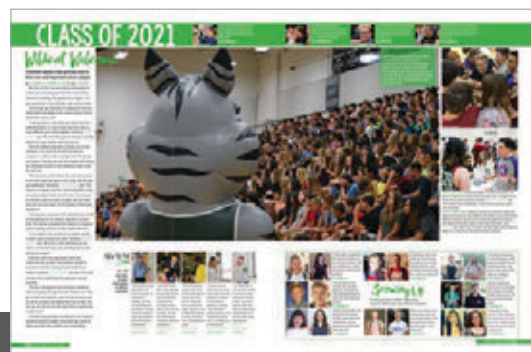

DEVELOPING A THEME: VISUAL & VERBAL

Think of a theme as your book's personality. A well-planned theme should include complementary visual and verbal cues throughout your book.

SPREADS DESIGNED BY THE ROYAL ROAR YEARBOOK STAFF OF HOPKINS NORTH JUNIOR HIGH, HOPKINS, MN

SPREADS DESIGNED BY THE PROWLER YEARBOOK STAFF OF MILLARD WEST HIGH SCHOOL, OMAHA, NE

VISUAL

A visual theme is typically what people think of when they hear the word theme. Visual theme is the consistent use of specific colors, graphics and fonts in your book. Every page should not look identical, but there should be visual cues that the theme is still present.

ABOVE: USING AN ART COLLECTION CUSTOMIZED WITH SCHOOL COLORS CREATES A STRONG VISUAL THEME THAT ALSO COMMUNICATES SCHOOL SPIRIT

VERBAL

A verbal theme consists of carrying a theme through your book via repetitive use of specific words or phrases and style of writing. Verbal theme development along with strategic typography are a good way to blend verbal and visual themes together.

ABOVE: ALONG WITH A STRONG VISUAL THEME, THIS SCHOOL UTILIZED ALLITERATION TO WEAVE A VERBAL THEME THROUGHOUT THEIR BOOK

CHOOSING AN ART COLLECTION

Pictavo's design team has created coordinating sets of templates, Snippets and Accents to make designing a yearbook easy.

CHOOSE

Based on your chosen theme for the year, select an Art Collection that will allow you to expand on that theme. Use the Collection as is or as a starting point for your designs.

CUSTOMIZE

Many Art Collections are full of colorable Accents allowing for maximum customization. Once placed on a page, all templates and Snippets are fully editable so adding color and moving design elements can be done with ease.

EXPANDING YOUR OPTIONS

You'll notice on the second page of each Art Collection, we've provided a 'style guide' to help in your design process. By using the same guidelines our design team used, you'll be able to create layouts that coordinate seamlessly with what we've already created.

LAYOUT

Knowing and understanding Pictavo's design environment will help you create well-designed pages that follow design rules and ensure a high quality book.

BLEED

The perimeter of the page masked out in yellow is the page bleed area. Photos and art that need to print to the page edge should extend to the outer edge of the bleed area.

TRIM

The red line around each page indicates where your page will be trimmed in production.

SAFETY MARGIN

The green lines around each page are the boundaries that should contain text and images that are not meant to bleed.

GUTTER

The gutter is the gap between two pages on a spread. To place images or art seamlessly across the gutter, link your pages.

- 1 Added sparingly, Accents help finish a layout and carry the visual theme.
- 2 Snippets are used here to efficiently complete the layout, creating additional stories on the page.
- 3 This portrait flow has been customized to add interest while maintaining the design style.
- 4 Adding candid in and around the portrait flow adds fun and allows for more coverage opportunities.

WRITING

Yearbooks that are engaging to read have many elements working together to tell a story. Headlines are used to draw readers in and Subheads can be used to tie events or stories contained on a spread together.

PHOTOGRAPHS OFTEN TELL PART OF THE STORY, BUT THE WRITTEN WORD IS JUST AS IMPORTANT. IN THIS SPREAD, THE STAFF WROTE A FEATURE STORY, INTERVIEWED STUDENTS, CAPTIONED EACH PHOTO AND STILL HAD ROOM TO WRITE A SECONDARY FEATURE ABOUT ANOTHER STUDENT'S MISSION TRIP EXPERIENCE. NOTICE THE CAPTIONS ARE LOADED WITH QUOTES, CREATING A HUMAN CONNECTION BETWEEN SUBJECT AND READER.

Touch THE UNTOUCHED
 Senior girls travel out of the country for a week and a half on a mission trip.

As a high senior to attend, students expressed all the possibilities that summer 2017 could bring. While many students spent more summer days relaxing at the pool or working long hours to earn money, senior students spent their time being others in need. For senior EMILY CRONIN and THE TOUCH team, here's what they did.

Senior and young members participated in a mission trip to the town of San Juan, Ecuador. The two girls spent their time with the children in the orphanage at San Juan.

"I had always wanted to go on a mission trip," Cronin said. "It was just a matter of when you could find time away from school. In the past, I had always wanted to go on a mission trip, but I had always wanted to go on a mission trip."

The main objective for the trip was to reach a third grade class at the orphanage. However, the two girls spent most of the time with the children in the orphanage, and it was beautiful. Cronin said, "There were lots of children and huge smiles everywhere. It was so nice to see everyone so happy."

The week flew by, and before they knew it, it was time to go home. Cronin said, "It was so hard to say goodbye to everyone, but we had a great time. I just spent about a month and a half with everyone, and it was so nice. It was really special to meet everyone and make so many friends."

It was perfect timing for the trip. Cronin said, "The girls were really happy and we had a great time. It was so nice to see everyone so happy. It was so nice to see everyone so happy. It was so nice to see everyone so happy."

Before they knew it, it was time to go home. Cronin said, "It was so hard to say goodbye to everyone, but we had a great time. I just spent about a month and a half with everyone, and it was so nice. It was really special to meet everyone and make so many friends."

STORYTELLING

Everyone knows when writing a good story, it's important to answer as many of the 5Ws and an H (what, where, who, when, why and how) as possible. Keep in mind that students like reading about people rather than a list of facts about an event. It is the job of the copywriter to create human interest features that are also high in detail and fact content. As you write, think about what you want the reader to learn or feel after reading your story. By telling a story rather than merely 'reporting', a writer builds a connection between the reader and the subject being written about.

Taking the time to interview a few students involved in the event is a great way to tie more emotion and humanity into a feature, as well as take advantage of telling a story from a different point of view.

TYPOGRAPHY

Typography is the art of using type as a design element. Choosing fonts and arranging copy makes a yearbook more visually appealing than simple text—especially in headlines.

- CHOOSING FONTS
- Use fonts that complement each other
 - Limit the number of fonts used in your yearbook to no more than three for a consistent look
 - Combine different font weights and sizes to create a design element that can carry a theme

WEAVE TYPOGRAPHY INTO YOUR LAYOUTS

- 1 Fonts with similar styles but differing widths and weights can complement each other.
- 2 Use a strategically placed symbol to tie together words in a headline.
- 3 Creating white space by expanding character and line spacing adds interest.
- 4 Find Accents that work well with fonts to help carry your theme throughout your book.
- 5 The simplest way to get creative with type? Change font weight, color or rotation.
- 6 Achieve a sophisticated design style (with just a few clicks of a mouse) by using Accents from the Letter Art Collection.

PHOTOGRAPHY

A yearbook relies on photographs to grab readers' attention with visuals that tell an accurate story of the year at your school.

BIRD'S EYE AND WORM'S EYE ANGLES ARE POPULAR WAYS AWARD-WINNING YEARBOOK STAFFS CAPTURE INTERESTING PHOTOS THAT MAKE THE READER PAUSE TO ENJOY.

- 1 Quality is king. Keep a DSLR handy and know how to use it. Capturing a well-lit, high-resolution image allows more flexibility while editing later!
- 2 What's your angle? Shooting from up high or down low can add an interesting perspective to your shots.
- 3 Keep it real. Let things happen naturally and be ready for the shot. Photojournalism is about telling the story that's happening in front of you.
- 4 Where are you? Know your surroundings and how to shoot well for the environment you're in.
- 5 Watch for the action! Nothing makes a visual statement like a great action shot.

Three full weeks in Europe?! My dreams come through, all thanks to my school, my teachers and my parents. Thank you!"

Hikes, hikes, hikes! Walking along Cinque Terre in Italy was definitely a highlight of their trip - seeing 3 beautiful, off the track, coastal cities on one path is amazing.

The students were very surprised to see so many other American tourists while on vacation! That means they chose the best spots... right?!

BACKPACK MUST HAVES

"My book bag has an insane amount of stuff inside. From books, art supplies, snacks, more snacks, (did I mention snacks?) headphones and gym clothes, there's never enough space for everything."

ADAM HUERTA
Freshman

SAY WHAT?!
According to our fabulous nurse, Mrs. Robertson, our book bags should not exceed more than 20% of our body weight before it starts to affect our backs. Time to start using that locker, kids!

 inquam, Piso, magna dissensio. Duo Reges: constructio

Contemnit enim disserendi elegantiam, confuse
